SENATE BATTLE GROUND OF PEACE

WAR BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND GERMANY WILL END
WHEN SENATE ADOPTS
HOUSE RESOLUTION.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 10.—With the adoption by the House of the joint resolution declaring war with Germany at an end, the Senate today again became the "battle ground for peace." Both Republican and Democratic leaders expected the measure to be taken up and without delay, probably Monday.

Canteloupe Assn. To Be Organized Here at Meet Next Saturday

There will be a meeting in the office of J. B. Hill, county agent, next Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, participated in by all interested for the purpose of forming a canteloupe growing association for this county.

A News reporter interviewed Mr. C. W. Zorn, of the Ada Feed and Seed Co., this morning, and learned some pertinent facts about the opportunities offered in this county for the growing of canteloupes.

Mr. Zorn stated that the land in this section was especially adapted for the growth of canteloupes, and that those raising them here could get them on the market at least two weeks earlier than raisers in any section of the state north of here.

He stated that the life of the canteloupe season was about three weeks and that in his opinion at least $5,000 worth could be disposed of during the season in Ada alone.

He stated that the way to dispose of them and make large profits for the raisers would be to have them grown in sufficient quantities that the growers could ship them by the carload to Oklahoma, Tulsa, Muskogee, Sapulpa and the numerous other markets which would be available to us by reason of the fact that we could pierce the market at least two weeks earlier than any other section of the state.

If only a few farmers of this section will enter into the enterprise they will not only make enormous profits on their own labor and investment, but they will bring thousands of dollars of extra money into the county during the canteloupe season.

Those who are interested in the enterprise should consult with Mr. Zorn, and by all means should be at the meeting in the office of county agent Hill next Saturday.

Within a few minutes after the question had been filed with Joe S. Morris, secretary of state, petitions were being circulated about the capitol building.

Miss Edna Wagner, 200 West Twentieth Street was the first signer. She was followed by Mrs. Virginia Brunk, of 1112 North Lindsay.

Blank petitions were being sent out to all parts of the state Friday by Attorney General Freeling. They are to be circulated by members of the state organization of Confederate Veterans.

Citizen Arrested on Charge of Beating Boarding House Bill

Francis officers yesterday afternoon arrested J. H. Patterson, who was accused of jumping a board bill in Ada. He was brought to Ada last night and lodged in the county jail. There seems to be a great number of people who do not know that beating a board bill is a violation of the law and that a rather severe penalty is attached to the violation.

OKLAHOMA ASK AID FOR INDIANS

SEEK ACTION BY CONGRESS ALLOWING IOWAS MORE MONEY FOR LAND; OTHERS GOT BETTER PRICE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Congressmen McKeown, Hastings, Morgan and Harrell of Oklahoma and Congressman Campbell of Kansas made a strong effort to secure action on the bill granting extra compensation to the Iowa Indians for their lands, when the unanimous consent calendar was taken up, but Congressman Walsh of Massachusetts objected to the consideration.

This bill has passed the senate. It has been favorably reported in other congresses several times. The amendments suggested by the department of the interior have been agreed to.

In 1890, the United States made an agreement with these Indians for their surplus lands. In order to get an agreement with neighboring tribes to sell their lands, the Iowa Indians were told that if they would agree to the sale, they would be accorded the same treatment as the Kickapoo, Sacs and Fox and Pawnee tribes. Relying on such agreement, the Iowans took an allotment each of eighty acres of land and the United States government paid them 38 cents an acre for their surplus land amounting to 207,000 acres.

After securing an agreement with these Indians as an inducement for the adjacent tribes to sell their lands the government allowed the Kickapoos an allotment of 160 acres each and $1.25 per acre for their surplus lands. The Sacs and Fox tribes were allotted 160 acres each and paid $1.25 per acre by the United States. The Pawnees and other tribes were treated in an equally liberal manner.

The Iowa Indians have contended since 1890 that the government should pay them the difference between 38 cents per acre and the amount allowed the other tribes.

35,000 MEN IDLE IN RAILWAY STRIKE

SOME STRIKERS RETURNING TO WORK BUT IN THE MAIN CONDITIONS ARE NOT IMPROVED.

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, April 10.—Despite assertions by railroad brotherhood officials of a break in the ranks of the insurgent Chicago switchmen and enginemen, unauthorized railroad strikes throughout the country assumed serious proportions today, with reports indicating nearly 35,000 men idle. In the Chicago district, which brotherhood heads regard as the key to the whole situation, improved conditions were reported and some strikers returning to work, but some other sections of the country reports of new walkouts came, and a strengthening of the insurgent forces.

Brotherhood officials declared reports that 35,000 switchmen were out throughout the country were exaggerated, but admitted the strikers had gained strength outside of Chicago.

Approximately 50,000 stockyards and packing house workers in Chicago have been thrown out of work by the stoppage of cattle shipments. At Geary, Indiana, 12 blast furnaces had been banked, throwing 12,000 steel workers out of employment.

Steel mills in the Mahoning Valley, Ohio, were preparing to close down today as the result of a strike at Youngstown and other points, and officials said 35,000 workers would be idle by nightfall.

Toledo reported all but one of 23 railroads tied up and a food and fuel shortage threatened. Freight movement west from Cleveland has ceased it was reported, and between 1500 and 1800 employees of nine roads have voted to organize a switchmen and yardmen's union today.

The Senate Rests Today.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 10.—A rest was taken today by the senate in its fight over universal military training. Following the adoption yesterday of a plan for voluntary instead of compulsory training the army re-organization bill went over until Monday, with effort to strike out the voluntary system also. By agreement the senate session today was devoted to eulogies of the late Senator Martin, of Virginia, former democratic leader.

GOVERNMENT MAY STOP THE STRIKE

IF STRIKE OF RAILWAY EMPLOYEES REACHES THREATENING PROPORTIONS UNCLE SAM MAY STEP IN.

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, April 10.—Federal intervention, unless the railroad strike is ended within 48 hours, was indicated as probable at the Federal building here today. District attorney Clyne following a conference, said the government had the power to cope with the situation brought about by the interruption of food shipments. Mr. Clyne has received instructions from Attorney General Palmer, respecting the course to be pursued, it was learned.

The district attorney yesterday conferred with officials of the brotherhood of the railway engineers and immediately called a conference of department of justice heads, and the bureau of investigation which lasted throughout the night.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Should the strike of railroad employees threaten a paralysis of transportation, the federal government would have to intervene, it was said today by high administration officials.

The strike is not regarded as having reached that stage, however, and government officers who are kept in close touch with the situation are of the opinion that the authorized leaders of the unions will be able to control without government interference.

Some officials say they would not be surprised if the rapidly spreading strikes resulted in a showdown between the union officers and those leading the strike. Officials declare that this was as good time as any for a test of strength.

President Wilson is being kept advised as to developments. He still is at work on the appointment of the railroad board, but White House officials said it was difficult to find the right men to represent the public who would give up their business to devote time to the board's work.

THE OPERATION OF TROOPS IN DOUBT

OPERATION OF FRENCH TROOPS ALONG THE RHINE MAY COMPLICATE TREATY PROBLEMS.

By the Associated Press
LONDON, April 10.—Declaration that the allies repeatedly declined to sanction the advance of French troops east of the Rhine, and that statements by Premier Millerand and other French ministers had given the impression that France would abstain from single handed action against Germany, are contained in the note outlining the British attitude sent to Paris, says the London Times. Emphasis is laid on the fact that grave problems connected with the execution of the Versailles treaty may arise in the future, it is said, and it is assumed "France will not act again on her own initiative, otherwise the work of the peace conference may become futile."

Reports from Paris state that France was told the Earl of Derby would be instructed not to participate in the conference of ambassadors until France had given assurance she would in the future act in concert with the allies, are confirmed by the Times.

The text of the British note, and the French reply have not been made public, nor is there any official information of the tenor of the two documents, beyond what may be inferred from inspired statements given out here.

Seniors At Normal Take Holiday And Have Jolly Outing

About eight o'clock Friday morning the Seniors could be seen hurrying here and there and the words "rain", "Byrd's Mill", "Stew" and "We just gotta go" were in constant use. The rain seemed to be coming but they went. No serious accidents happened and by ten o'clock they arrived at Franks. Some of the young ladies here entered into the sport of fancy horse-back riding with very great enthusiasm, but the horse soon refused to perform longer for the fair damsels, so they proceeded to the springs.

At the springs a rare treat was given to the lovers of music by the wonderful singing of a most efficient quartette composed of Misses Cartwright and Gray and Messrs. Wimlish and King. Many other interesting things occurred. A large fly wheel to be turned by the water was constructed under the direction of Taylor, Mitchell and Miss Lois Heard was the first to come to harm but it was only a nice soaking, so all went well.

After having done justice as only boys and girls can, to a magnificent lunch, they prepared the stew. This stew was composed of five chickens, peck of potatoes, five pounds of pork, tomatoes, corn, onions and oodles of grit as well as spiders and other varmints. Five hours of hard boiling added the needed touch and at six o'clock they all dined on "shore-nuff" Senior stew. Mr. Gordon arrived a few minutes too late and the Seniors regretting very much that he had not come, had saved for him a part of the stew.

On the way home new musical talent was discovered in several people and after much discussion they departed. Their utmost appreciation of the generosity of the president and faculty was expressed in the enjoyment of the best time of the whole year.

Those in the party were: Miss Jones, Senior Sponsor, Esther La Mar, Galine Oliphant, Ophelia Gray, Eunice Bliss, Clarice Cartwright, Carrie Roach, Lois Heard, Vocational McCarty, Frances Campbell, Lillian Thompson, Lottie Hilliard, Mary Bell Sullivan, Nell Jackson, Alta Marsh, Bess Laird, Inez Neal, Bessie Neely, Linnie Allred, Willie Robinson, Abbit Kitchens, Cora Love, Vera Lane, Arie Crumley, Daisy Britt, Lester King, Taylor Mitchell, Robt. Wimlish, Ralph Heard, Oscar Parker and Lyle Sullivan.

Dayton Freight Tied Up.

By the Associated Press
DAYTON, Ohio, April 10.—Freight traffic in Dayton railroad yards was completely tied up today as the result of the strike of 250 switchmen.

PREACHERS PAY NO INCOME TAX

THEY'RE NOT EXEMPT, BUT SIMPLY DON'T MAKE ENOUGH TO BE THE
"LUCKY VICTIMS."

Ministers are exempt from the operation of the income tax law—not through any specific exemption in the law itself but because they do not earn enough money to come within the law's minimum requirement. Out of a total of 177,000 ministers in the United States, but 1,671 receive enough salary to be required to pay any income tax.

The average of ministers' salaries in towns of 300,000 population is $1223 a year, according to statistics gathered by Dr. Ralph S. Cushman of the Stewardship Department of the Inter-church World Movement. From that size city on down to towns of 100,000 inhabitants, the average salary falls to $1,110. From 100,000 to 50,000 the average is $1,063 and from places of that size down to 10,000 the average pay of the minister is $972. In towns of less than 2,500 population the preacher's yearly allowance is 573.

The average salary of the college trained preacher is $973, according to Dr. Cushman's figures—several hundred dollars less than the annual earnings of workers.

A worker in the rubber industry averages $1,526.20 a year. The average for the boot and shoe worker is $1,346; for the chemical worker $1,164; and the wool worker, $1,179.88; and for the papered worker $1,962.72.

While the salary of ministers has slightly increased since 1914 it is very small in comparison with the increases obtained by industrial workers. Chemical workers receive 104 per cent more money than they did five years ago, cotton workers 71 per cent, metal workers 88, wool 62, silk 93, rubber workers 110, and boot, shoe and paper workers an increase of 76 per cent each.

NEW PREMIER OF GERMAN REPUBLIC

Herman Mueller.

Herman Mueller is the new premier of the German republic, succeeding Gustav Bauer. He was formerly foreign minister.

Joe Bailey is a much smarter man than we ever thought he was. He is a man of long vision. About six years ago when he moved to Washington he sold everything he had in Texas except a lot in a cemetery at Greenville. It looked for a time like Joe would not need his burial site for a good many years, but from all indications now it will come in mighty handy for him about August this year.—Hugo News.

Turkey to Force Marriage So As To Increase Birthrate

By the Associated Press

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 9.—The Sultan, Mohammad VI, has issued an imperial decree proclaiming May 1 as "marriage day" throughout Turkey in an effort to promote the weddings and to arrest the decline in the birthrate. This action was taken on the request of Hazine Bey, Minister of Interior, who ascribes the decreased number of births in Turkey to the frivolity of young men.

The Sultan's decree, all engaged persons who have been unable to marry earlier are urged to do so May 1. As an inducement, no charges are to be made for marriages performed on that day, guests at weddings are to make gifts, the first children of those who wed on May 1, are to receive the names of the children of the Sultan and to receive the gift of a bracelet from the governor of the province in which the child is born.

The Sultan's son is named d'Ertoghroul and his daughters are Roukic and d'Ulvi.

The edict is especially directed to the province of Broussa in Anatolia, which attracted much unfavorable comment in the Mohammedan press because of its greatly reduced birthrate and the tendency of its population to violate the Moslem prohibition of the use of intoxicating beverages. Government officials allege that people of Anatolian villages, men and women alike, indulge what they call "burning nights" of music and feasting.

Indulgence in modern dancing has aroused the protest of a member of the Chamber of Deputies from "participating in the antics and capers of the ball room."

Embargoes Are On Shipments Out Of Oklahoma City Now

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 10.—An embargo on freight shipments from Oklahoma City to and through Chicago was in effect on all lines entering the city on Thursday morning. Some embargoes were not as stringent as others.

M. C. Burton, division freight agent of the Santa Fe, stated that the embargo enforced by that road is directed chiefly against shipments of livestock and perishable goods. Other freight is accepted with the understanding that it is subject to indefinite delay. Statements regarding the probability of delays are inserted in all bills of lading.

An absolute embargo on all shipments to Chicago or points east which must be routed through that city was in force on the Rock Island lines, the agent stated.

Frisco and M. K. & T. embargo orders were received by local officials Thursday morning with directions that they become effective at once.

Iowa Women To Vote Regardless of The Fate of Ratification

By the Associated Press

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 9.—Iowa suffrage leaders are making plans for women to vote for presidential electors in this state, regardless of whether 36 states have ratified the federal suffrage amendment by the election. The interest in the fight in various states for ratification has caused Iowa, passed by the Thirty-eighth general assembly, to be forgotten by many. It provides that the right to vote for presidential elector shall not be denied because of sex and every woman who has attained the age of 21 years and other qualifications requisite of the male vote shall be entitled to vote. Separate ballots must be provided for the women.

The same law has been adopted in other states, it is said here, and its constitutionality has been discussed widely, but so far as known here has not been passed upon by the courts.

Anita Stewart Is Nearly Smothered In a Blazing Barn

One of the thrilling scenes of "In Old Kentucky," the First National big special feature with Anita Stewart starring, which will be shown at the Liberty theater on Monday and Tuesday is where Miss Stewart rushes into a burning barn to save a thoroughbred racer from the flames. A barn was purchased for this purpose and was burned to the ground.

Miss Stewart, as Madge Brierly, the little mountain girl, has been visiting in a nearby city. She is very much in love with the young master of the estate, but has been told by a jealous woman that the young man is playing with her heart. She slips quietly out of the big house to return to her mountain home. But as she leaves the ground she sees that the barn is on fire.

She knows that a fine thoroughbred race horse is stabled in the barn, and that the horse is a favorite for the stakes in the great Kentucky handicap, which race soon is to be run.

Others from the house rush out as the flames mount up, but no one dares to enter the stable, which is enveloped in smoke and flame.

Miss Stewart actually rushes into the barn and finally coaxes the horse to follow her out of the stable. The fire and smoke is so thick that she can hardly be seen through the doorway, but she finally emerges, half suffocated.

Her hair was singed in the taking of the scene, and she was nearly smothered by the smoke, but she suffered no serious injury.

The barn of dry boards and filled with hay then quickly burns to the ground and falls into ruins. It is a brilliant fire spectacle and carries an intense thrill.

West Side School Patrons Complain Of Discrimination

Ada, Okla., April 9, 1920.

Ada Evening News: Just to give people an idea of the unfair treatment the east side accords the two west side schools we have a few facts to relate.

When ex-President Taft spoke to the Ada school children last Tuesday morning all the schools were notified or invited out to the Normal except Irving and Glenwood.

WHY? We want an answer.

Now in the different contests we see the unfair treatment given the two west side schools again.

In a piano contest it is fair to give first place to the player who leaves out over two lines of her music in preference to the player who makes no mistake? That was done.

In the chorus contest the same thing was repeated and anyone who pretends to be a judge of singing and music will see that the decision was made, not in fairness and justice but through prejudice.

SALVATION BY LAW

The most interesting phenomenon of the century is the propensity to reform the race by statute. Conversion by argument has gone to the discard. Conversion by law is demanded by a thousand reform organizations. The confession of faith has yielded place to the revised statutes of Oklahoma. "If thy right hand offend thee, appeal to the legislature" has become the text of the modern world.

Not one Oklahoman in ten thousand knows how many regulatory statutes clutter the session laws of the state. It is amazing that so much plenary legislation should be enacted in a land supposed to have completely divorced church and state. Creeds have crept into our codes at such a rate that the keen visioned can already forecast the day when the questions of baptism, apostasy, and final perseverance will appear in our codes and judicial decisions.

The chief end of man is no longer "to glorify God and enjoy him forever." The chief end of man in these parlous times is to invent a reform and demand a law. "We need a law," is the commonest expression of the market place. In the earlier days of the republic the sinner was reformed for his sins and led to salvation by repentance unto life. In these later days the Brazen Serpent is forgotten and the sick of soul are directed to lift their eyes to the domeless capital of this virgin state and appeal for another law.

"Render unto Caesar that things that are Caesar's" is obsolete in this day of grace. We moderns have devised a way of legislating Caesar out of office and repealing the things that are Caesar's by emergency measures that cannot be referred to popular vote. We refuse to wait for any leavening process. "We enact a law" by and with the consent of the governor, providing that all well behaved leavening shall be done overnight.

Heartfelt religion feels strongly out of place among a contingent of professional reformers who seek to take the kingdom of God by violence and who call the meek and lowly to repentance by threats of fifty dollars and thirty days. The heart felt religion that gave to mother church its pristine glory has no place in the economy of those who employ statutes as arguments and preach the gospel in the committee of the whole.

YOUR DUTY AS AN AMERICAN

As a loyal citizen you owe America something!

It is not enough to merely pay taxes and attend to your own private business. That goes a long way toward making a splendid citizen of you, it is true, but there is another and a greater duty which you must perform.

You must "boost" your country!

The time has come when it is necessary for every loyal citizen to do some "boosting!" Make it a practice to sow some propaganda everywhere you go, every day in the week, that will tend to antidote the spirit of revolution which is so much in evidence.

You ministers of the gospel have a mighty influence with your followers; particularly those of you who preach to men and women of foreign birth. Tell these "new Americans" what is expected of them. Do not drive them, but persuade them that it is their duty to respect and love the country which is giving them freedom and abundant opportunity to accumulate fortune.

You editorial writers and newspaper men have a wonderful influence also. Now is the time for you to use some of your influence in the interest of your country. Tell your readers, especially your readers of foreign birth, what is expected of them and what they can do to make themselves welcome and show their appreciation of the protection and freedom this country offers them.

You teachers in the public schools have a wonderful media, through the plastic minds of the youngsters, to sow the seeds of loyalty where they will bring back a big crop of results. Reach the parents through the children and let them know what is expected of them.

The time has come when all of us must go to work quietly and antidote the prevailing tendency toward anarchy and radicalism! We cannot do anything of permanent value through legislation or force, because people will resent doing that which they have not been convinced they should do. The human heart is the place in which to turn the tide of revolution. Get busy and do your part in your community.

Do the people know that the country pays one half the salary of every officer, clerk, laborer and employee of the city of Washington?

TAFFETA ALWAYS HERALDS SPRING

By ELOISE

Spring has really arrived and even if you have not heard or seen a robin and the trees show no signs of buds-you will know it is here by looking in the shop windows and seeing the dainty taffeta frocks on display. Taffeta is almost as authentic a herald of spring as any of the poetic harbingers. You may know when you see taffeta coats and frocks on exhibition that spring has arrived even though the snow is still on the ground. If spring were to have an official frock it would surely be of taffeta.

Here is a dainty frock which is very charming for early or late spring. It is fashioned of navy blue taffeta. The skirt is a plain gathered model made with the Turkish effect by gathering it in on cords at the bottom. The blouse is made on surplice lines and a novel touch is given at the waistline by the use of a fluted accordion pleated ruffle which extends over the hips. The short little puff sleeves and the dainty fillet and organdie collar are small features which made the frock distinctive and charming.

Increased Weight of Soldiers Good on Shoe And Clothing Dealers

Statistics recently issued by the war department and received today at the army recruiting station should be a source of great satisfaction to the shoe dealers and manufacturers of the country. The average gain of weight of each of the 4,000,000 men who were in the service during the world war as shown by compiled figures to be 3.35 pounds. Hence, ex-service men of the country are carrying on their feet extra weight to the extent of some 13,400,000 pounds. The average weight of the men inducted into the service on the date they were examined was 141.54 pounds. The day the "skipper" signed the discharge the average weight of Mr. Former Soldier was 144.89 pounds.

Has the past 60 years with its gradual transfer of men from the farm and village to the factory and the "bright lights" affected the average height of young America? The statistics of the army authorities would indicate that but the slightest change in average height would indicate that but the slightest change in average height has taken place. In the war between the states over 1,000,000 recruits for the union army were examined, showing an average height of 67.6 inches. The average soldier of the late war was 67.5 inches tall.

In addition to increasing the pressure on mother earth by some 13,000,000 pounds the ex-wearers of the olive drab added an average of .23 inches to their height. On entering the service the tape measure showed 67.49 inches. The day the $60 bonus was handed out the chalk mark on the door was raised to 67.72 inches. In other words, the same 4,000,000 added a total of 920,000 inches or 76,666 feet to their height.

The war department has not yet figured out the number of inches trouser cuffs have been lowered, nor the average rise in the 1917 suit belt line over its level three years ago.

A Serious Problem of These Times—Saving

Today when the golden opportunity to SAVE AND ACCUMULATE is upon us we as a people are Spending Recklessly.

A little economy today pays bigger returns in savings than any time this generation, at least, has ever known.

The aftermath of this high tide may and probably will be some very close times, financially and perhaps otherwise; times in which a little spare money will be sorely needed by many of us.

Let's lay by a little savings for that uncertain day.

The day when the sun may fail to shine.

Stonewall Church Is Furnished New At Large Expense

By News' Special Service

STONEWALL, Okla., April 10.—A complete new outfit of church furniture, involving a cost of approximately $1,750, will be placed in the Methodist church at an early date. The order was placed last week by the church board.

This is all the Methodist people need to give them a neat house of worship, and when completed will be a credit to a town twice the size of Stonewall.

Rev. Holland is serving his third year as pastor of the Methodist church here, and largely through his personal efforts the church debt was removed and a number of improvements made on the church property, finally leading to the purchase of new furniture.

Fourteen Cases Of Whiskey Found In Widow's Home

By the Associated Press

PITTSBURG, Kan., April 9.—As the result of a raid in which officers found in the cellar of her house fourteen cases of whiskey, Mrs. Jennie Pozhun, a widow and mother of four dependent children must serve an indeterminate sentence at the women's farm-prison at Lansing. Declaring that Mrs. Pozhun had given "false testimony" at the trial, Judge A. J. Curran refused to entertain a plea that she be granted a parole. She was found guilty on two counts by a jury in district court and in addition to the prison sentence was fined $200.

Judge Curran stated that the general circumstances of Mrs. Pozhun might be reason for exercising clemency, but that her testimony overcame any disposition the court might have for exercising leniency. Mrs. Pozhun testified that she did not know who placed the whiskey in her cellar. Officers testified that the only entrance to the cellar was a trap door under a bed in Mrs. Pozhun's bed room.

The fourteen cases of whiskey seized in the raid were part of the liquor taken by burglars in several "hauls" from the county court house at Girard. A man and a woman of Girard are under charge of having committed the court house burglary. Mrs. Pozhun's home is in Radley.

LADEN WITH SPOILS OF WAR

Chinaman Who Worked With Allied Forces in France a Wonderful Sight When He Returned.

Pick and spade heroes of the Chinese republic, who soldiered so hard in France for an allied victory, are returning to the homeland with the choice pickings of the salvage piles of Europe on their backs. The Home Sector gives this picture of the returning coolie sports: "There are two obvious signs which make it plain that great things are stirring in these hitherto unstirred parts. One of them literally smites the eye as soon as the returned warrior steps down the gangplank of the coolie transport at Tsingtau or Shanghai. Dizzily arrayed in the sartorial pickings of all the earth, they are a fearsome wonder to behold. American overseas caps and Scottish kilts, French shoes, swagger sticks, a chasseur hat set rakishly on the ear and a bird cage in hand in the manner of the native tea-house, sometimes even a Sam Brown belt—it is a wild cubist melange of the costumery and appurtenances of all the world and all times.

"The little children run before them in terror, the aged resign themselves to the coming of the long-forboded evil spirits wreaking vengeance for the joss stick left to go out before the village god."

PONTOTOC ROBBER LOOTS HOME BANK

By News' Special Service

ARDMORE, April 10.—Under indictment for killing Mike Broken-shoulder, his brother-in-law, several weeks ago, John Cathey was lodged in the Johnston county jail at Tishomingo, 30 miles east of Ardmore, charged with robbing the National Bank of Pontotoc, Thursday afternoon.

Wearing a gas mask which had been worn in the front line trenches by the man he is accused of having killed and armed with a Winchester, Cathey is alleged to have entered the bank at Pontotoc Thursday afternoon and secured over $2,000, including $1,000 in silver. He then, it is alleged, compelled Cashier Barnes to climb into a car which stood in front of the bank and which belonged to the cashier.

Claiming he was unable to start the car the cashier sought to delay the alleged robber until help should arrive but he was forced into another car, the bandit forgetting to remove the $1,000 in silver from the first car. About two miles out from Pontotoc the bandit set Barnes adrift and started on by himself in the car. In crossing the Blue river he "killed" his engine and abandoned the car. A team hitched to a plow was standing in a nearby field and Cathey is alleged to have jumped into the field and was busy plowing when officers arrested him.

Two small boys who said they saw him when his engine was killed in crossing the stream and noted his actions in removing the gas mask and pre-empting the team reported the matter to the searching party. The currency, amounting to over $1,000 has not been recovered. Cathey refuses to make a statement. He lived in Pontotoc where the robbery was committed. Pontotoc is a small inland town in the extreme northern part of Johnston county.

Services may be expected in this church tomorrow as follows:
Church school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning services at 11 o'clock.
No evening services.

Despite the handicap the little church school had from illness during the Lenten season, the children broke their own splendid record in their mite box offering last Sunday having given over $105. "And a little child shall lead them." Now let the older folk take the hint, follow the lead, and break some records in their part of our church service.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services, and assured the usual genuine welcome. Remember the little church.

First Baptist Church.
In spite of the terrible weather of last Sunday morning we had two hundred and forty seven in Sunday School, and a splendid congregation at the morning service. At the evening hour the congregation was fairly good considering the weather. There were four additions to the church during the day.

Sunday School will convene tomorrow promptly at 9:45. Superintendent Riddling will be present and in charge. Let's have about four hundred present.

The morning preaching service will begin promptly at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the subject, "Why Southern Baptists are not cooperating in the Inter-Church World Movement." We feel that it is due the public in general to state just what the Inter-church World Movement is, and show why we, the largest denomination in the south, are not cooperating. The public is cordially invited to be present.

At the close of this service we will observe the Lord's supper. We are very anxious for all the members to be present for this part of the service.

The Sunbeams will meet at three o'clock with Mrs. J. T. Emry in charge.

Woman's Part In Man's Success

Often the strongest impulse to save comes from the woman of the household.

Every man should consider himself fortunate who has a wife or mother who helps him to save money.

The important part about saving is not the amount of money you set aside each week. The essential thing is the firm decision to save a definite, regular sum, no matter how small it may be.

Even $1 saved regularly each week, will make your savings grow amazingly.

And this bank helps by adding 4 per cent compounded semi-annually.

D.W. SWAFFAR IS OUT FOR COUNTY TREASURER

In another column of this paper appears the announcement of D. W. Swaffar as a candidate for the office of county treasurer. Mr. Swaffar has served one term in this important county office and on his record for efficiency and service he is asking for another two years.

There are few men better known than Dan Swaffar. He has lived here many years and has been considered one of the most upright and conscientious men in the county. He is a clerical man of exceptional ability and has made a good record as an efficient officer in the place he now occupies.

Mr. Swaffar did not make any glowing promises when he made the race for the office two years ago. He simply stated that he would serve as best he could. That he has carried out his promise to the letter no one familiar with the county affairs would for a moment doubt. He is making the same promise now, that he will serve faithfully and to the best of his knowledge and ability. He has not and will not put off on deputies the work that he has been and is paid to do.

PURPORTED FACTS OF WINN TRAGEDY

ANDY COLEMAN AND MISS JOSEPHINE BEACH MAKE SIGNED STATEMENTS FOR THE COUNTY ATTORNEY

By News' Special Service

STONEWALL, Okla., April 10.—Andy Coleman and Miss Josephine Beach, who received gun wounds on the night of March 26, near Haskell, are both getting along nicely. Mr. Coleman, who is in the hospital at Ada, will be permitted to return to his home this week. Several efforts to locate the bullet, which lodged in Miss Beach's head have proved unavailable, but it is believed her condition is not serious and that the bullet will be located in time.

This week County Attorney Wayne Wadlington and sheriff Bob Duncan secured signed statements by Miss Beach and Andy Coleman. These statements give the story of the awful tragedy in their own words and are reproduced herewith. Both tell practically the same story.

Statement of H. A. Coleman
H. A. Coleman, of lawful age, makes the following voluntary statement:

On Friday night, March 26, 1920, I took Josephine Beach in my buggy from her home to a pie supper at Haskell school house. On our way to the school house we passed U. G. Winn, Jr., I saw him get on his horse on the side of the road and he rode along the side of us for a piece. He talked with us a little, made the remark to me that when I wore out my buggy I could buy his, as he had no use for his buggy now. He further said: "I will see you at the school house, my horse is lame and I will not ride so fast."

He was at the school house, but said nothing to me or the girl and neither of us talked to him any at the school house. After the supper the girl and I left in my buggy. As we were leaving the school house I saw him with a bunch of cakes and pies and he seemed to be handing them out to the other boys.

We had not driven but a little ways when I heard a horse coming up fast behind us, and Josephine looked around and said "That is Eugene." He rode up beside our buggy and Josephine said "U. G. you must have not eaten your pies," and he replied, "I don't like them." He then remarked "Josephine I would like to talk with you. If Andy will get out of the buggy," I then remarked "U. G. I don't think it would be right for me to take a girl away from home and not take her back like I found her." He replied that he did not blame me. He continued to ride on by the side of us and then said "Josephine I would like to talk to you," and she said, "U. G. there is no use. Did you get my ring and letter?" and he said yes, and she said, "that was just what I meant."

He then said "Josephine, I would not hurt a hair in your head, but Andy and I have got to die before morning." He then pulled his pistol and shot up in the air. He was still at my side of the buggy. His shot scared my horse and I jumped out of my buggy and caught my horse by the bridle. Before getting out of the buggy, I told him that he said he didn't want to hurt the girl and for him not to shoot and make the horse run away with her. While I was still holding the horse he shot me while he was still on his horse by the side of the buggy. I floundered around, but continued to hold to the lines. He then shot the girl. I saw the blaze of his gun toward her, and she floundered in the buggy and fell out between the wheels. He then raised his gun and I saw a blaze go toward his own face, his horse then started, and he began to totter, and when the horse had gone 10 or 12 feet he fell from his horse on the far side of his horse from me. After he fell, I managed to get hold of the girl and turned my horse and buggy around and spoke to her but she never spoke. Two boys soon came up and called for help.

Statement of Josephine Beach.
Josephine Beach makes the following voluntary statement:
On Friday night, March 26, 1920, I went with Andy Coleman in his buggy to a pie supper at Haskell school house. On our way to the school house we overtook U. G. Winn, Jr. He was on the ground but got on his horse and rode for a little piece along side of us. He seemed to be friendly, and made the remark to Mr. Coleman, "that is a nice buggy you have, I would like to sell you mine when you wear yours out as I have no use for mine now." He then said he would see us at the school house, as he would not ride fast as his horse was lame. He dropped behind and we went on to the school house. At the pie supper Mr. Coleman and I were together and neither of us talked to U. G. at the pie supper, and he did not talk to us at the school house. He bought several pies, and got the cake for being the ugliest boy. Mr. Coleman was run for the ugliest man; but U. G. gave money to have himself elected; but his face got red and he seemed to get mad or embarrassed over it; but Mr. Coleman did not seem to get mad about it, and nothing was said between Mr. Coleman and U. G. at the school house. U. G. bought several pies, and got the cake. He gave the pies back to the girls and his cake to one of the boys.

Mr. Coleman and I started home in the buggy. We had not gone far when U. G. rode up on his horse on Mr. Coleman's side of the buggy. He began to talk and seemed friendly at first. Soon he asked Mr. Coleman to get out of the buggy and go away a little piece, as he wanted to talk to me. Mr. Coleman would not do this and said he did not think it right for him to take me out and be letting another boy talk to me, and U. G. agreed that was right. He continued to ride along by the side of us and talk, and did not yet seem to be mad. He then repeated that he would like to talk to me and I asked him if he got my ring and note and he said yes, and I told him it meant just what it said. I further told him that my mother did not want me to go with him, and he seemed to get mad and said he thought that was just an excuse for me to avoid him. He further said that he would not harm a hair on my head, but he and Andy had to die before morning. He was still on his horse on Mr. Coleman's side of the buggy and he shot up in the air once or twice. I don't know which, and scared the horse, and he told Mr. Coleman to get out and hold the horse, and Mr. Coleman did not get out at first, and U. G. told him again to get out and hold the horse and Mr. Coleman got out and had just caught hold of the horse's bridle when U. G. shot him, and then I seemed to faint and did not see him shoot me or himself. When I came to myself I was on the ground.

As a matter of fact I did not know U. G. was shot until sometime later.

A Correction.
By some mistake in the yesterday's article on the comic opera given at the Normal auditorium on Thursday evening, mention of Miss Ophelia Gray was left out of the original copy when it went to the printers. In the copy it stated that Miss Ophelia Gray, as the wife of Don Cubeb de Cigarro, played her part with rare dignity. Miss Gray's name was not left out in the original copy for she was one of the leading characters and the mistake was that of the printers and thus an apology is due Miss Gray.

CHURCHES

First Presbyterian Church.
Sunday school 9:45 a. m., J. M. Gordon, Supt.
Preaching 11:00, Dr. Arthur Lee Odell.

Senior Endeavor, 6:45 p. m., Miss Mollie Russell, Supt.
Preaching 7:45, Dr. Odell.

The Lord's Supper will be administered at the eleven o'clock hour at which time there will be a public reception of all the members who have been received into the church in the last three months. An opportunity will also be given to any parents or parent to have babies christened. Several people have expressed a desire to have their babies baptized while Dr. Odell is pastor of the church. This is to urge you to have this done tomorrow, if practicable, as Dr. Odell cannot be with us many more Sundays.

Do not forget the Sunday school and the effective work that is being done. The men's class has already taken on new life since Judge Wimbish became the teacher and the women's class defies a Christian defiance—the men's class to outdo it. Keep your eyes on the Primary department.

The members of the church will bear in mind also that Ardmore presbytery will hold its annual meeting Tuesday night. The coming of the presbytery to us should mean a great deal to the congregation.—The Committee.

B. Y. P. U. Have Weiner Roast

The Baptist Young People's Union met at the First Baptist Church last evening about 7:30 and in cars and Nathan Levin's truck repaired to Byrd's Mill or near that locality. Brother Morris and wife and about 40 members of the Union and their friends made up the jolly crowd.

After the arrival, the boys built the fire and the girls drew forth all kinds and shapes of what is known as Weiner Schnitzel. After twigs and branches were cut, all proceeded to roast thereon the weenies and marshmallows. This was followed with a desert of creek water which served as a thirst quencher.

After various and appropriate games were played a picked trio furnished music, which awoke the animal inhabitants of the neighborhood for miles around.

About ten o'clock the crowd dispersed and repaired to their various homes, voting the Union a most jolly crowd of entertainers.
